Agile2023
THE SCOTLAND EXPERIENCE

My motto:
“I like to see great energy emerging from motivated people”

WHY? Ask yourself in silence:

Why challenge my own personal point of view?

What's the point to try perceiving reality through other's eyes?

What if someone I am supposed to work with to achieve the same goal, perceives reality differently?

ROUND 1: Rules Of the Game

2 roles: Sketchers and PO

- PO describes what they see with as many details as necessary
- Sketchers draw individually what they hear
- Sketches need to be exact, not artistic!!!
- Each team member is drawing individually.
- Questions are not allowed!
- During playtime, PO is not allowed to peek at the drawing!

End of the game: when time is up, the PO checks the Stakeholders' hidden requirements. Sketchers get 1p for each right detail.

Teams self-organize around the task of drawing.
